

THOMSON REUTERS

List of Authors

Robson's Annotated Corporations Law

General Editor

Justice RI Barrett is the Corporations List Judge, Supreme Court of New South Wales

Contributors

Nick Bender BA, LLB (UNSW), LLM (Hons I) (Cantab) is a barrister practising in NSW from Banco Chambers, particularly in commercial, corporations, regulatory and white collar crime litigation. He is a Visiting Fellow and lectures at the University of New South Wales.

Robin Bowley BA (Hons), LLB, LLM has worked as a lawyer with ASIC since 2005. He teaches corporate law and securities regulation at the University of Technology – Sydney, and financial services law and regulation within the Master of Applied Finance program conducted by Kaplan Professional Tim Breakspear BCom, LLB is a barrister at the New South Wales Bar practising extensively in all areas of commercial law including corporations, contract, equity, property, building and construction, trade practices and professional negligence. He is a member of Banco Chambers.

Paul Cleary is a partner at TurksLegal. He works in the fields of corporations law and trust law, with particular emphasis on financial services, insurance and superannuation. Admitted to practice in 1994, Paul has worked in the financial services legal industry in various capacities including as in-house counsel for the Commonwealth Bank of Australia, Colonial First State Investments and FuturePlus Financial Services. He has also worked in private practice and immediately prior to accepting an offer of partnership at TurksLegal, he worked at Freehills.

Kristyll Dawson BA (Hons), LLB (Hons) is a solicitor practising in corporate law at a leading commercial law firm.

Jason Harris BA LLB (UWS), LLM (ANU) FCIS is a senior lecturer in corporate and insolvency law in the Faculty of Law at the University of Technology, Sydney, and has taught in law and business schools for the past 9 years. A member of the Corporations Committee and the Insolvency and Restructuring Committee of the Business Law Section of the Law Council of Australia, he is also a fellow of Chartered Secretaries Australia, and an academic member of the Insolvency Practitioners Association and INSOL International. Jason's research is focused on voluntary administration, creditor and shareholder rights in insolvency and directors' duties. Jason has published over 70 articles in academic and professional journals and has written and contributed to 10 books, including writing the case annotations for Thomson Reuters' Corporations Legislation Annual from 2004-2009.

Michael Hung LLB (Hons 1), BCom is a solicitor practising in corporate law at a leading commercial law firm. Michael previously worked as tipstaff to the Hon. Mr Justice P W Young, Chief Judge in Equity of the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

Azadeh Khalilizadeh, BA (Hons), LLB is an international writer and editor specialising in corporate governance and social responsibility. Admitted to the Supreme Court of New South, Azadeh is currently a features writer for The Times (UK) (corporate supplement), The European Lawyer and contributes to Australian law publications.

Brett Le Plastrier graduated BA, LLB (Hons) with the University Medal in Law from the University of Queensland, and with a BCL from the University of Oxford as a Commonwealth Scholar. Since graduating from Oxford, he has been at the Bar in Brisbane practising exclusively in commercial law, providing advice to corporations, banks, and other commercial entities, as well as appearing in the Federal and State courts in all aspects of commercial litigation.

David Parish BA, LLB (VUW) is a barrister at the New South Wales Bar (13 Wentworth Selborne Chambers) who practises in commercial and civil litigation.

John Pender is legal advisor at the Australian Institute of Company Directors. He is a graduate of the University of NSW and spent a number of years at Sly & Weigall (now Norton Rose Australia) in the commercial and litigation areas. John then practised at the New South Wales Bar for 20 years, initially exclusively in commercial law, including in corporate law and financial services. After 20 years John left the Bar to develop a career as an in house lawyer.

Michael Phillips BA(Hons), LLB(Hons), PhD practises commercial law in London, and was previously a solicitor at Atanaskovic Hartnell and at Phillips Fox in Sydney.

Christopher Wood BSc/LLB (Hons) (UTS) is a barrister practising in commercial, equity and intellectual property law at the Sydney bar. He is a co-author of Finnane Newton & Wood Equity Practice and Precedents (Thomson, 2008).