

WITH THE AUSTRALIAN LEGAL JOURNALS INDEX FINDING THE INFORMATION YOU NEED IS EASY.

The Australian Legal Journals Index (ALJI) is the perfect way to perform comprehensive topic-based research of journal articles. ALJI online guarantees you keep up to date by browsing or searching through journal abstracts, cases referred to, legislative references, key-citing information or by jurisdiction.

A hassle-free way to find the comprehensive content you need from Australasian journals. An ideal research tool that is quick, thorough and intuitive.

DEPEND ON THE ALJI...

RELIABLE CONTENT - quality information from a reputable source, the Commonwealth Attorney-General's Department has been compiling this information since 1971

CURRENCY OF INFORMATION - the index is frequently updated with new articles keeping you up to date with the latest developments in your area of specialisation

BREADTH OF COVERAGE - the ALJI contains more than 100, 000 abstracts from over 400 journals

With links to 20 full text online journals, authorised and specialist law reports covering topic areas such as:

- Administrative Law
- Banking and Finance
- Building and Construction
- Criminal Law
- Environment and Planning
- Insolvency
- Intellectual Property
- Torts
- Trade Practices and more...

Plus links to FirstPoint, The Laws of Australia and Alert24: Current Awareness

SIMPLE TO USE - the functionality and search tools are uncomplicated and require little or no training

Trial it free online for 14-days and find out how you can benefit from the ALJI www.thomson.com.au/ALJI

Contact us for more information 1300 304 195