

Australian Succession Law – Precedents

The following is a list of Precedents included in Australian Succession Law.

New South Wales

- General power of attorney
- Enduring power of attorney
- Revocation of power of attorney
- Appointment of enduring guardian
- Revocation of appointment of enduring guardian
- Notice of resignation as enduring guardian

Queensland

- General power of attorney
- Enduring power of attorney (short form)
- Enduring power of attorney (long form)

Australian Capital Territory

- General power of attorney
- Enduring power of attorney
- Revocation of enduring power of attorney
- Revocation of [enduring] power of attorney

Victoria

- General power of attorney
- Enduring power of attorney
- Enduring power of attorney (financial)
- Revocation of power of attorney
- Revocation of enduring power of attorney (financial)
- Appointment of enduring guardian
- Revocation of appointment of enduring guardian

Wills and Codicils

Simple Will – Husband to Wife
Simple Will – Wife to Husband
Base Will – Male
Base Will – Female
Codicil – Male Codicil – Female

Clauses

Trustee Appointment

Appointment of sole Executor
Appointment of sole Executrix
Appointment of sole Executor with age provision
Appointment of sole Executrix with age provision
Appointment of husband as Executor
Appointment of wife as Executrix
Appointment of Executor sole beneficiary
Appointment of Executrix sole beneficiary
Appointment of joint Trustees
Appointment of joint Trustees with disagreement provision
Appointment of joint Trustees with age provision
Appointment of lay person and firm of solicitors as Trustee
Appointment of firm of solicitors as Trustee
Appointment of firm of solicitors as substitute Trustee
Appointment of substitute Executor where spouse is not sole beneficiary