

Robson's Annotated Corporations Legislation

List of authors (May 2018)

General Editor

Reginald Barrett

The Hon Reginald Barrett served as a Judge (2001-2015) and Judge of Appeal (2012-2015) of the Supreme Court of New South Wales after practising corporate and securities law for more than 30 years as a partner of both Allen Allen & Hemsley and Mallesons Stephen Jaques and General Counsel at Westpac Banking Corporation. He was the Supreme Court's Corporations List Judge for several years and is a member of the editorial board of the Company and Securities Law Journal and the advisory board of Practical Law Australia.

Original Author

Ken Robson

Ken Robson BJuris (Hons) LLB (Hons) was a corporate law barrister for 20 years. Ken specialised in ASX listings, reconstructions and compliance. He was also involved in similar work in England, Europe, South Africa and Canada. He is now an Executive Director in mining.

Current Authors

Colin Anderson

Colin Anderson BCom (Hons) LLB (Hons) DipEd (Qld) LLM (QUT) PhD (Qld) is currently an Adjunct Associate Professor at the School of Law, at the Queensland University of Technology. Colin has over 25 years' experience of teaching and researching in insolvency and corporate law at undergraduate, postgraduate and professional level. He was previously the general editor of the Insolvency Law Journal for over 10 years and is currently co-author of Crutchfield's Corporate Voluntary Administration, also published by Thomson Reuters.

Colin has authored a number of texts, articles and presented papers at national and international conferences in the area of insolvency law, corporate law and related topics.

John Arthur

John Arthur BCom, LLB (Hons I) practises in mergers and acquisitions, specialising in public M&A and equity capital markets at a leading commercial law firm. John is also involved with pro bono projects for the RSPCA and National Children's and Youth Law Centre. John previously worked in-house with a market leading ASX 100 company.

Nick Bender

Nick Bender BA, LLB (UNSW), LLM (Hons I) (Cantab) is a barrister practising in New South Wales from Banco Chambers, specialising in commercial and equity matters with a particular focus on corporations law.

David Birch

David Birch BA (Hons I), LLB (Hons I) (USyd), LLM (Class I and Chancellor's Medal for English Law) (Cantab) is a barrister at the New South Wales Bar (Eleven Wentworth Chambers), practising in commercial litigation.

Robin Bowley

Robin Bowley BA (Hons), LLB, LLM currently lectures in corporate law, insurance law and securities regulation at the University of Technology – Sydney, and financial services law and regulation within the Master of Applied Finance program conducted by Kaplan Professional. He previously worked as a Lawyer with ASIC from 2005–2011.

Matthew Broderick

Matthew is a partner in HWL Ebsworth's Litigation Team in Brisbane, with over 18 years' experience in insolvency and dispute resolution. He is regularly engaged by major banks and insolvency practitioners to represent their interests across a variety of insolvency related matters and litigation proceedings, and he has a particular interest in liquidators' recovery proceedings. Matthew has a specialised practice in taxation law and regularly acts for the Australian Taxation Office in taxation recoveries. Matthew was listed in the 2014 Best Lawyers International Directory for Insolvency and Reorganisation.

Tony Ciro

Tony Ciro BEc (Hons) (Monash), LLB (Hons) (Monash), BCL (Oxon), PhD (Law) (Monash) is the Deputy Head of School (Melbourne) and Professor in the Faculty of Business at Australian Catholic University. He is a current member of the Victorian Bar and a member of CPA Australia, and his research has been published widely in leading Australian and international commercial law journals. Tony has received international awards for his publications and has extensive research expertise in financial derivatives regulation, business law, corporations law and general commercial law.

Harrison Grace

Harrison Grace BA (Hons I) JD (Dist) (Sydney) is a barrister at 7 Wentworth Selborne practising in commercial law, corporations law, equity, trusts and public law. Before coming to the Bar in 2016, he worked in international arbitration in Singapore for Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer (focusing on investor-state and treaty disputes), and in Paris for Allen & Overy (on large scale commercial claims). Harrison was previously Tipstaff to the Honourable Justice R I Barrett of the New South Wales Court of Appeal. He has taught Civil and Criminal Procedure at Sydney Law School.

Madeline Hall

Madeline is a barrister at Banco Chambers specialising in commercial litigation. She has worked as the Judicial Clerk and Research Director to the Hon T F Bathurst AC, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Prior to being called to the bar she gained extensive litigation experience, by working in a range of dispute resolution teams including at law firms Allen & Overy, Kemp Strang and Corrs Chambers Westgarth. Madeline maintains an interest in teaching and currently lectures on litigation and dispute resolution at the University of New South Wales.

Anil Hargovan

Anil is an Associate Professor in the School of Taxation and Business Law at UNSW, Sydney. Anil has published over 100 articles and conference papers on corporate and insolvency law. His scholarly work has been cited by the Corporations and Markets Advisory Committee and the judiciary. Anil has authored and co-authored several books including Principles of Contemporary Corporate Governance (Cambridge University Press, 2015) and Australian Corporate Law (LexisNexis, 2016). He is a past President of the Corporate Law Teachers Association of Australia.

Brit Ibanez

Brit has practised exclusively in litigation and dispute resolution since her admission in 2002. She has extensive experience in all aspects of litigation and alternative dispute resolution, particularly corporate, agribusiness, managed investments and private client disputes. Brit's particular areas of expertise include resolving shareholder oppression actions; advising directors about their potential liability in advance of making board decisions; acting for parties in relation to joint venture and partnership disputes; and advising in relation to contested director, shareholder and managed investment scheme meetings.

Anthony Kaufmann

Anthony Kaufmann BA, LLB (USyd) is a barrister practising in New South Wales from Ground Floor Wentworth Chambers, specialising in commercial/equity and taxation matters, with a particular focus on corporations law.

Laura Keily

Laura Keily is a barrister at Ninian Stephen Chambers, Melbourne and was admitted to the Bar in 2013. She specialises in corporations and competition law as well as complex commercial litigation. She has represented companies, directors and government agencies in cases involving corporate law and finance, regulatory dealings with ASIC, insolvency and bankruptcy, and disputes arising from commercial transactions.

David Parish

David Parish BA, LLB (VUW) is a barrister at the New South Wales Bar (9 Wentworth Chambers) who practises in commercial and civil litigation.

Timothy Smartt

Timothy Smartt BA/BS (University of Texas at Austin), JD (Sydney) is associate to the Attorney-General of New South Wales. He was previously Tipstaff to the Honourable Justice Paul Brereton AM RFD, Corporations List Judge of the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

Christopher Wood

Christopher Wood BSc/LLB (Hons) (UTS) is a barrister practising in commercial, equity and intellectual property law at the Sydney bar. He is a co-author of FinnaneNewton & Wood Equity Practice and Precedents (Thomson, 2008).