The Detectives' Handbook 2018 is produced on behalf of the detectives of New South Wales. As with previous editions, the content has been carefully selected by NSW detectives for NSW detectives, to be of maximum benefit and relevance.

This 2018 edition features up-to-date legislation and commentary extracted from both Criminal Law (NSW), by AM Blackmore and GS Hosking, and Uniform Evidence Law by Stephen Odgers SC.

The legislation most relevant to the work of detectives is available in two volumes or eBook format, and represents exceptional value. For ease of reference, the back cover lists the legislation in each volume.

Legislation content is shaded to provide quick reference and additional pages are included to enable the taking of extensive notes. A handy index is located at the end of Volume 2, to help you navigate your way through the work.
